

NEW DANCE!

This classic is a very popular dance on every floor at one time or another. Variations are common - so be creative with yours. Do not attempt to start this dance with a left or right vine if no-one else moves within the first few bars of music. If no-one gives you any clues, restart dance in same direction. The origins of this dance are a total mystery. It is suitable for any music.

This is a one wall line dance, with each repetition facing who knows where.
